Freedom Club News

As we step into the final stretch of the year, October brings a whirlwind of excitement and change. The crisp Autumn air carries the vibrant colors of the fall. The farmers are busy harvesting with the sight of combines rolling across the landscape. Halloween's spooky fun to the gathering's of Thanksgiving are just around the corner-there's something for everyone. In the sports world, it's a season of thrills with football heating up, basketball tipping off, and MLB World Series coming to a dramatic close. Whether you're cozying up or staying active, these months are packed with moments to savor.

Freedom Club left for New Orleans on Saturday September 7. On our way down we stopped in Omaha and spent a couple hours at the Old Market. On Sunday we visited America's National Churchill Museum in Fulton, MO. Of course it is not a trip unless we make a stop at a winery along the way. Sugar Creek Winery was the perfect stop to break up our day on Sunday. Little did we know when we arrived in West Memphis, AR, our trip would be cut short due to the hurricane that hit New Orleans. The decision was made to cancel the trip and head for home. Before we left we decided to spend the afternoon at Graceland which was not on our itinerary originally. Once done with the tour we headed for home and stayed the night in Kansas City. Tuesday we headed for home but made a stop at Wells Blue Bunny for an ice cream treat. We had a great group of people that were very understanding of the decision that was made.
